BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

Knocking.

A word and a kiss for your fellow
Is better than knocking his play,
And if you can't speak of him kindly
Be sure and leave nothing to say.

A dollar or two to a creature
For down in the depths of despair,
Is better than knocking in morals
And preaching a lot of hot air.

A hope for the glory of heaven
Is better than knocking the plan,
Or knocking the plan of education
Established for God's chosen man.

Miss Ruth Houston is visiting in Washington.

Misses Twitty are visiting their cousin, Mrs. W. J. Gills.

Miss Davenport, of Louisville, Ky., is visiting Mrs. Walker Scott.

Mrs. C. A. Price and family occupy a floor at Mrs. Wade's.

Miss Una Kelly was the guest of Mrs. C. A. Price yesterday.

The practice school and kindergarten are under full sail again.

Mr. Hugo Venable, of Norfolk, is visiting relatives and friends in town.

Mrs. Geo. W. Kennedy, of Norfolk, is visiting her niece, Mrs. K. H. Cowan.

Home sickness is in the air but there have been no fatal cases, and are not likely to be.

Miss Belle Johnson, of Richmond, is visiting Farmville friends and relatives.

Miss Kate Wicker, who for some years has been teaching in Tampa, Fla., is home for a brief season.

Miss Mary Carroll Spillane, of Lynchburg, is visiting in the home of Mr. Robert L. Freer.

This evening in the lecture room of their church the Presbyterian ladies will entertain the Normal girls of that faith.

The Farmville Guard inspection which was to have taken place last Monday night, has been postponed until Saturday night, the 15th.

The iron rail has been removed from around the Confederate monument, but it is safe in the keeping of the affections of this people.

At a meeting of the Town Council held on the 5th all the officers were unanimously re-elected and annual reports read and approved.

Dr. R. C. Bondurant, of the "Woman's College," Tallahassee, Fla., spent a few days with his brother, S. A. Bondurant last week.

The little machine used for preparing the side walls is not a musical instrument, but we hear it because it gives promise of smooth walking.

Mr. Harry Lasker, of Chicago, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Simon Lasker on his way to Jamestown and Washington, en route to Chicago.

Report was received here yesterday that Mr. R. I. Orange had been seriously hurt at Metairie. No particulars were obtainable at the time of our going to press.

Mr. Hoge Uffle, nephew of Mr. J. A. Scott, who has been absent from Virginia for the past 18 years has been visiting hands with friends in town and country during the past few days.

It has been fifteen months since the bell has rung at the Methodist Church. Listen as its sweet notes peal out an invitation to worship there again on Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Miss Vera Vaughan, after a very enjoyable summer with her relatives and friends here, has gone to visit in the home of Mrs. Sallie Russell, of Amherst. Before returning to her home in Washington, Miss Vaughan will spend a short while in Albemarle county.

The Methodist and Presbyterians have been worshipping together so long that they have learned to sing with peculiar emphasis. "Blest be the tie that binds." The Methodists, however, will occupy their lecture room next Sunday, and from that time on until the church building proper is ready for occupancy.

That was a narrow escape little Ginger experienced last Monday when seized with "acute indigestion" or some sort of colic, we know not which. The prompt and heroic treatment by Drs. Burger and Cox, the skilled veterinarians, brought ease to the petted and popular animal, and joy to the heart of his little master, Robert Bugg.

The Conservatory starts out with flying colors and has promise of a prosperous session. The kindergarten is still charming the little children and is the source of delight to parents. The "Gym" is in full swing and making "sound bodies" for "sound minds." Miss Maggie Watkins, who will have charge of the sick, and let us hope that her duties will be very light, is making thoughtful and intelligent preparations for whatever work may be before her.

Farmville has a warm place in its heart for the returning Normalite and those who come for the first time. The gates of our little city, the doors to our homes and churches stand wide open to receive you. The keys of Farmville are given into your keeping and we have no treasure that they do not unlock. Feel at home though you must feel keenly the absence from your old homes. May peace abide with those who make your homes dear to you and with you while you abide with us.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy One of the Best on the Market.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best on the market for the purposes for which it is intended. Sold by Winston Drug Co.

Had Letter for Thirty Years.

I have suffered with letter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little if any relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks what is sometimes, but nothing to Midland City, Va. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by Winston Drug Co.

Brilliant Costume German.

The most brilliant social event here in many years, was the costume ball given by the Farmville German Club, Friday evening September 6th, at Hotel Prince Edward.

The costumes were unique and well chosen, all fashions being represented, from the eighteenth Century Belle, to our modern Columbia, and from William Penn to the Bowery Swell of to-day.

Art, added to what Nature had already so liberally bestowed, completed a scene of beauty seldom equaled. Fair faces smiled welcome to friends, bright eyes sparkled with the fire of youth, joyous laughter rang out as dainty feet tripped across the hall.

Under the skillful leadership of Mr. E. S. Martin and to the accompaniment of delightful music by Professor Dean's Orchestra, the dancers performed many graceful figures.

Those dancing were J. Taylor Thompson, a Colonial Gentleman with Miss Helen O'Ferrall, a stately and graceful Columbia, E. S. Martin, a picturesque Cowboy, with Mrs. E. S. Martin, J. W. Hubbard, a Sailor, with Miss Hattie Cox, a gorgeous and blushing Poppy; J. H. Gilliam with Miss Anne Garnett, a girl of the Old South; F. S. Blanton, a Cadet with Miss Lucy Dunnington, a charming Martha Washington; D. B. Blanton, as King of Hearts, with Miss Hattie Bugg, a lovely Queen of Hearts; George C. Robeson a dangerous Jesse James, with Miss A. B. Dugger, a realistic "girl of the Golden West," Frank Woolton a Bowery Swell, with Miss Alice Paullet, a handsome Carnation; W. W. Barrow, as Uncle Sam, with Miss Maude Walker, a dainty Violet; B. B. Baldwin, a Puritan Lad, with Miss Minnie Blanton, a winsome Janice Meredith; R. L. Freer, as George Washington, with Mrs. R. L. Freer, a gorgeous Butterfly; J. E. Johnston, with Miss Katherine Venable, a lovely Shepherdess; Dr. C. B. Crute, an Army Surgeon, with Mrs. C. B. Crute, a charming Red Cross Nurse; Dr. Elmer E. Jones, as William Penn, with Miss Carrie Sudler, a fair Colonial Maid; Lee Bidgood, as Day, with Miss L. M. Snow, a smiling star-crowned Queen of Night; Horace Adams, a Colonial Gentleman, with Miss Irving Wicker, a beautiful Dolly Varden; W. W. Vaughan, an Indian Chief, with Miss Hattie Paullet, a dainty Pink Rose; W. P. Venable, a Knight of the Tourney, with Mrs. W. P. Venable, a handsome Gipsy Fortune Teller; W. C. Duvall, with Miss Mary Vandewater, Stags; V. P. Paullet, A. C. Ogburn, H. T. Scott, Dr. W. J. Gills, J. L. Hart.

The lady's prize for the best costume was won by Miss Katherine Venable as a Shepherdess, the gentleman's prize by Mr. R. L. Freer as George Washington. Judges, J. B. Rote, of Westfield, Mass., Richard Wills, of Colorado Springs, and J. L. Hart.

Delightful refreshments were served at midnight, after which dancing was resumed and continued until a late hour.

Death of Mr. Garnett.

Died Tuesday afternoon at his home in Buckingham, Mr. A. C. Garnett, aged 84 years.

Death of Aged Lady.

Died near Rice Depot, Aug. 27th, in her 90th year, Mrs. Mary Jane Smith at the home of her son, George W. Smith.

Burial services were conducted from the home on the 28th in the presence of a large concourse of friends and neighbors by the Rev. J. H. Davis, of Farmville.

Mrs. Smith had been gradually declining of old age for some months and, faithfully nursed by her children, had awaited the approach of death with fortitude, desiring to depart and to be with Jesus.

She had lived a consistent member of the Baptist Church from an early age performing all the duties of wife, mother and neighbor so as to win the affection and approval of all.

She leaves several children to mourn her loss: Mrs. V. W. Kuhn and Mrs. Sallie Martin, of East Radford, and Messrs. James R., Geo. W. and S. E. Smith, of Prince Edward.

A True Snake Story.

For some time Mrs. J. W. Fowlkes, who resides near Hampden-Sidney, had been missing eggs from her hen nests, and she was unable to account for their disappearance. She used as a nest egg a large porcelain salt shaker, which about one month ago also disappeared. One day last week Capt. Fowlkes discovered a big snake curled in one of the nests, and being afraid to attack the reptile with a stick, he shot it. He shot the snake and decided to hold an autopsy upon the remains of his snakeship. Upon doing so out of the reptile's stomach rolled several whole eggs and the salt stand, the latter measuring four inches in diameter and about five inches in length.

Sulphur Brings Health.

Purifies the Blood and Clears Up the Complexion.

Everybody needs to take Sulphur at this season. Nothing like it to purify the blood, clear up the complexion and remove "that tired feeling." But the only way to take it is in liquid form. HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR taken internally is the best Spring tonic. Applied externally HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR quickly cures Eczema, Tetter, and all skin diseases. HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR OINTMENT removes Pimples, Blackheads and Sores, and gives a beautiful soft, velvety skin. Your druggist sells it. It cured Edward D. Herring, of Frederick, Md., of a bad case of Eczema, and he writes: "My face is as smooth as an infant's."

All about Sulphur Booklet free, if you write HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR CO., Baltimore.
